A proposed drive-in restaurant on the southwest corner of Foothill Boulevard at Euclid Avenue was rejected by Upland's City Council at Monday night's meeting, when the council upheld the planning commission's recommendation to deny a Taco Lita CUP.

The Taco Lita permit was rejected over the opposition of financier, Charles Milhiser, owner of the property, who outlined to council members what he felt was grossly unfair practices on the part of the planning commission and the council. He stated, that he had bought the C-4 property "in good faith" only to discover that when the time came to sell that property for a use the zone permits he was being blocked by an arbitrary council.

TWO ATTEMPTS

Taco Lita builders, Unrue and Jones had previously made two unsuccessful attempts to secure approval of a building permit from the planning commission. At the first commission hearing members moved to wait on the permit in order to determine more accurately the type of eating establishment being proposed. Questions arose when members of the commission felt that the Taco Lita was more of a drive-in than a family type restaurant. Taco Lita promoters took the opposite view and when they argued that the eating establishment would not be the "outdated type" drive-in where people eat in automobiles.

In the meantime the city council passed an emergency ordinance which stated that for the next 90 days any builder seeking to build any type restaurant in Upland would have to apply for a CUP, thereby coming before the council.

At the second meeting before the commission requesting a CUP for the proposed drive-in, the planners recommended to the council denial of the permit.

Speaking before the council in opposition to the drive-in were Mrs. Anna Laponis, owner of the building adjacent to the land owned by Milhiser; James McDaniel, attorney who spoke on behalf of Mrs. Laponis and other lawyers housed in the Laponis building and Ken Corrington, a resident whose property is directly southwest of the land in question.

Corrington pointed out the problems that residents are now experiencing with the McDonald's Drive-In restaurant which lies

13Year Old Upland Youth Credited With Saving Soldier

SAVES SOLDIER

...David Munoz...

SALINAS -- A 13-year old Upland boy, David Munoz of 863 North 3rd Avenue has been publicly commended by the Chief of Police H.W. Roberson of Salinas, for administering mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to Edward D. Misinec, 20, a soldier stationed at Fort Ord.

The act of bravery took place on August 12 when Misinec and a companion were at the swimming pool of the Salinas Travel Lodge.

The police account of the incident follows:

Detailed to follow up with the Fire Department at above location.

Upon arrival observed the ambulance leaving the motel with Misinec in it.

Contacted Cooper who stated he can't swim, but was laying by the swimming pool and pulled Misinec to the top where Munoz was in swimming. Cooper added he knows Misinec can't swim very good and told him to stay out of the deep water. Cooper further added he looked for Misinec a couple of minutes later and observed him laying on the bottom of the swimming pool.

Cooper stated he saw Stark walking by and asked him if he could swim and help get Misinec out of the pool.

Stark took off his suit jacket and dove in the pool and pulled Misinec to the top where Munoz was in swimming. Munoz came over and immediately started mouth to mouth resuscitation on Misinec.

Munoz, stated he started giving Misinec mouth to mouth, as he appeared to have stopped breathing.

Munoz also stated Misinec had started breathing a little bit when he was put in the ambulance but was still blue in the face.

Stark stated he saw Misinec on the bottom of the pool, dove in and pulled him out and Munoz immediately started giving mouth to mouth resuscitation to Misinec who had stopped breathing. Misinec was treated by Dr. Madison at Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital and later released.

Misinec stated he did not know what happened except he drove into the swimming pool and could not get to the top, and the next thing he knew he was being taken into a hospital.

President of his eighth grade class at Upland Junior High, David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Munoz of 863 N. 3rd Avenue, Upland.

He is an avid baseball fan and was an All Star Little Leaguer. He presently plays ball with the Upland Pony League. David was named Most Outstanding Student during his first year in junior high and was also a member of the honor society.

Besides his mother and dad, David's best friends are his brother, Joe, 20; sister, Margaret, 17; and sister, Stella 10.

Letter

The letter from the Salinas Chief to the Upland hero reads: Dear David:

Too often we read of the bad deeds of our young people. Too seldom are the good deeds brought into focus.

I would like to commend you for your unselfish action and heroic deed in saving the life of another young person. You were able to observe a situation, and to take the action of giving artificial resuscitation to a young man who would surely have died without your action.

The fact that you did not know this person, but that you were willing to help in this good deed, makes your act more commendable.

As an official of the City of Salinas I commend you sincerely for the action that you took. Thank you for giving life to a fellow human being. This is an honor bestowed upon very few people, particularly those of your age.

I wish you all the happiness for the future, and I am sure the knowledge of giving life will enhance a better future for you.

Sincerely,
H.W. ROBERSON

Cheer Quarters Plea

An appeal for assistance in locating a suitable downtown building to house "Operation Cheer" was made to the chairman of the Upland Merchant's Association by Councilman, Ronald Rossiter at Monday night's council meeting.

"Christmas is coming upon us and these packages must be mailed," said Rossiter, who for the past two weeks has been unsuccessful in his search for an unoccupied building at a reasonable rent. He promised Cheer representatives at the last council meeting that he would personally help them find a new location.

In his appeal to the merchants, the councilman pointed out the advantage of having the Cheer organization in the downtown area, when he said, "This group will bring traffic and interest to the concourse."

Operation Cheer, an organization comprised of West End residents who volunteer their time to mail packages and cards to area men in Vietnam has been housed at Bill's Ranch Market, since November of 67. These quarters are now inadequate to handle the large volume of packages and materials consequently the group's representatives are actively seeking new facilities.

Teen Center Stag Or Drag

A Backwards Dance...stag or drag...with the girls bringing the boys will be the next featured attraction at Upland's Teen Center, reports director, Joyce LaBudda.

The dance is set for 7:30 p.m., Friday, Aug. 23 at the teen facility, located at the corner of Ninth Street and First Avenue.

Mrs. LaBudda urges all Upland teens to visit the center and get acquainted with the new directors, Joe Flores and Jim Reynoso, who are anxious to discuss fall programs with interested youths.

Saturday night, Aug. 24, the "Foggy Daze" band will play for the enjoyment of attending dancers, and the directors home extended an invitation to local teens to drop by the center this week and listen to the band rehearsing for Saturday night's event.

Merchants Discuss Promotion Tax Levy

At the request of the Downtown Merchant's Association, Upland's City Council Monday night, approved a resolution to set a public hearing to discuss the possibility of increasing the tax levy on specified businesses within the parking and business improvement area.

John Meyer, chairman of the Downtown Merchant's Association presented a resolution to the council members calling for tax increases to be levied for the purpose of downtown promotions and Christmas decorations.

Council members approved the resolution which calls for a public hearing at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 3 in the council chambers.

Move To Strengthen Elementary Schools

An overall strengthening of the educational program in seven major areas will be seen in the Upland elementary schools this fall, according to a report this week from Vern Orum, school superintendent.

Orum reports that for the first time there will be a program in the local schools for the mentally gifted child, on elementary as well as junior high level.

The district is adding another EMR class and three more EHC classes at the junior high level.

Two full time teachers will be employed to teach instrumental music and five additional reading specialists will be available on the primary level.

The kindergarten sessions will be a full three hours with one class in the morning and another in the afternoon. Teachers will no longer be required to teach two sessions each day, consequently the district will double the number of kindergarten teachers.

TESTING PROGRAM

School officials are presently working on the testing program in an effort to refine the aptitude tests so that they will more adequately show the deficiencies and strengths of the children tested.

An expected enrollment of 6,100 students is forecast for the September opening of schools. This estimate exceeds last year's enrollment by 434 students.

The additional 434 students will not cause overcrowding at the elementary level, as school officials report the Upland Elementary School on 5th Ave will be opened to elementary pupils this fall.

The newly renovated junior high will house the junior high students, who for the past two years have held classes at the elementary school.

Earnest Candidate's Wife Devoted Mother of Five

A study in quiet composure in the midst of whirlwind activities which include a steady schedule of luncheons, buffets, telephone calls, press releases and mailings describes the candidate's wife, Glenna.

Devoted wife and mother of five active youngsters, Mrs. James L. Christensen is the woman behind the man, Jim, who is fighting an uphill battle to unseat the democratic incumbent Assemblyman in our district.

Each day brings new demands and challenges which are met with the assistance of her enthusiastic children. All avid Christensen for Assembly supporters... everyone gets in on the act... from the oldest son, Steve, 20 to little Diane, 6.

Although her husband has little time to spend with his family right now, Mrs. Christensen makes every effort to "spend as much time with Jim as possible." She attends most dinners and speaking engagements with her husband thereby displaying active involvement in his campaign.

"The children are marvelous about the campaign." "We discussed in detail what might be ahead for us, before Jim, decided to accept the nomination... you might say we have a solid family effort and the youngsters are really enjoying themselves."

"LaVar, watched the Republican convention from start to finish and could keep you informed on every moment's activity." He keeps a scrapbook on his Dad and spends many hours putting up signs and going from door to door with his Father saying "Hello" to the voters.

Jimmie, besides being a member of the All Star Little League team, is another budding promotion man. He does a good job with the signs and also enjoys meeting the public.

The following two years he traveled as lead trumpet with a professional chorus and brass group sponsored by the Chrysler Corp. In 1965 he joined the Continental Singers and Orchestra on a tour throughout the United States and Europe and has become a staff member of that organization. He was recently accepted into the Fred Waring Pennsylvania, but has declined the offer to remain in college. He is studying on a music scholarship at the Southern California College in Costa Mesa.

One of the highest tributes a young brass player can receive is an invitation to be a part of the Stan Kenton Neophonic Brass Group Organization in Hollywood. Mr. Gardner has had such an invitation and performs with them on occasions.

The Continental Singers and Orchestra is a touring group of 40 musicians and technicians. There is a twenty-voice choral group and a twenty-piece orchestra. Their two hour program will include concert - anthem selections, hymns, Gospel song arrangements and spirituals. The group is presently on a 75 day tour throughout California, Hawaii and the Far East. They will perform in Japan, Okinawa, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Thailand and the Philippines, making numerous appearances at Armed Forces hospitals and bases in these countries.

Seventh-day Adventist School Registration Set For Aug. 28

Registration for the fall term has been scheduled for Wednesday, August 28, at the West End Seventh-day Adventist elementary school, it was announced by Michael Solazzo of 7th St., Upland, the new principal this year. Classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. on September 3.

Officials will be on hand at the school located at 1722 East 8th, Ontario, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. August 28 to register students expected to number about 80 this year. Members of the teaching staff at the 8 grade school will be: Mr. Michael Solazzo, the principal, who will be teaching grades 7 and 8, Mr. Sammy Anaya, a new teacher this year coming from the San Bernardino area, will be teaching through graduate and professional levels.

Believing that this extensive school system is one of the major factors in the growth and strength of the church, members last year invested more than $15,000,000 in Christian education in the United States alone. Beginning with a single school enrolling 90 students in 1872, the Adventist educational system has grown out of a belief in the importance of religious education and at the same time a strong conviction that religious instruction in public schools violates the principle of separation of church and state as set forth in the Constitution.

WCTU Backs Bill

Richard Baker and Matthew Nicely, who attended the Loyal Temperance Legion Camp at Camp Maranatha, recently told how much they had learned of the evils of tobacco and alcohol and how much they had enjoyed themselves at camp, when the Upland Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Friday, Aug. 16 at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Iva Marr, 170 Tenth Ave., Upland.

Mrs. Edythe France of Upland, supervisor of Arts and Crafts, reported the children responded wonderfully, keeping the camp neat and orderly and making discipline a minor problem. After the reports a break was taken for a Fruesta (cookies and fruit drinks).

Three letters received from legislators, concerning AB 2008 to prohibit alcoholic beverage licenses to be issued for University and State College campuses, said the bill is now in interim study and is dead for this year. John V. Briggs, however, feels that it will be introduced next year and assured the writer of his vigorous support in this effort.

Subscriptions for the Young Crusader, a national children's magazine, were renewed for the Sierra Vista and Baldy View elementary schools of Upland.

Man's Work

Lawrence C. Allin, Chairman, Social Studies Department, Cucamonga Junior High School contributed this article "Log of Conquest" to the May issue of the "Pacific Historical Review." This journal is the quarterly publication of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association.

She served as the flagship of Commodore Thomas ap Catesby Jones during this period which began with Commodore Jones' premature conquest of California for the United States.

For the past year Allin has been studying methods of instructing the Soviet Union as a social studies interest at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York as an Experienced Teacher Fellow.

Heat Melts Frosting

When you bring home a cake from the store or bakery and find that the icing wants to stick to the wrapping, wring out a cloth dipped in hot water and place it lightly over the wrapped cake, leaving it there for about two minutes. The heat from the cloth melts the frosting just enough to allow you to remove the covering without disturbing the frosting.

Recreation Program Hits All Time High In Upland

The Upland Recreation Department completed its most successful summer program Friday, August 9.

George Schilens, recreation director, said attendance averaged over 6,500 per week, an all-time high. Schilens feels that the success of this years program was a direct result of the "dedication to young people" and hard work exhibited by an excellent staff.

Over 25 areas of different activities were provided for the youth of Upland and many adults took advantage of the opportunities and joined in the fun and relaxation. The wrestling, band, story-telling, archery, and arts and crafts programs led all activities in attendance.

Schilens said he plans to expand the summer program even more next year to meet the demands.

Upland Receives Cigarette Tax Apportionment

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy recently announced the distribution of $5,947,735 to counties and cities as the July apportionment of cigarette tax.

The apportionment was made in accordance with the new formula under A.B. 684 which became effective on July 12, 1968 (Ch. 543). Under the new formula, 50 percent of the cities' share was apportioned by Local Sales Tax ratio and 50 percent by population ratio. The distribution of the counties' share remained the same as before -- on a local sales tax ratio.

San Bernardino County's share was $39,304.42, and Upland City's share was $7,696.66.

This amount represents 30 percent of the revenue deposited in the Cigarette Tax Fund during the month of June, 1968.

Mrs. Christensen's oldest daughter, Linda, 18, works at the General Telephone Company in Pomona. Her efforts on behalf of her Father, include typing and secretarial work. "Linda does not plan to enter college until after November," Mrs. Christensen remarked with a smile. Her daughter has plans to enter Brigham Young, Provo, Utah, with the January, 69 class.

Ballet and swimming star, Diane, 6, is in charge of stuffing and putting gum labels on envelopes. . . a job she takes very seriously. She is another Christensen who enjoys going out with Dad to meet the people.

Steve, a sophomore at Brigham Young, was an outstanding athlete while a student at Upland High. He is employed for the summer months at Von's Grocery, but still finds time to "help in many ways with the family campaign."

The dinner and speaking engagement merry-go round calls for a "great deal of attention to dress and hairdo," commented Mrs. Christensen. She is in favor of the more casual California mode of dress which allows for simple fashions. . . outfits that can go from afternoon to evening events. Extreme Paris creations and mini-skirts are not in her wardrobe.

Sunday is family day and a halt is called to all campaign activities. Church services are followed by family togetherness, which might include a picnic celebrations of Jim's birthday . . . or an all family trip to Disneyland.

"The months ahead will be even more hectic," but with her ready smile and competent abilities, Mrs. Christensen and family plan to enjoy every minute of the big race.

Plans call for an additional recreation center at Sycamore Elementary School and Upland Junior High School. The teenage and adult program will be greatly expanded next year.

Plans call for a possible womens and mens adult volleyball league, a wrestling league, a mid-gel basketball league, and additional recreation time at the Upland High School gym for adults and teenagers. Other changes are also planned but will depend on budget appropriations.

Schilens said he was pleased with this year's program and hopes interested persons will contact him in regard to suggested additions to the summer program or any suggestions for improvement.

city-wide tournaments were held by the Upland Recreation Department during the summer. George Schilens, Recreation Director, and Dan Milakovich Assistant Recreation Director, will continue giving their time and energies to Upland youngsters as both will be teaching at Upland Junior High this fall. The people of Upland can look forward next year to the most fantastic recreation program of them all!

Hikers Display Stamina

In spite of rain and sleet some of the members of the Alta Loma Hiking Club made it to the top of Mt. Whitney in the Sierras.

Recently the group started out on a two day outing, which began early one Saturday morning at the Alta Loma High School. Hikers travelled by car to the Whitney Portal, where their adventure began.

The first day's hiking brought them to a camp at the 10,600 foot Mirror Lake. All plans were moving along as scheduled when a midnight rain dumped two inches of wetness on the group.

The Sunday dawn found a soggy bunch of boys and only half of them decided to attempt the remainder of the hike to the summit.

Their determination was rewarded when they reached the peak at the 14,495 level. The supreme satisfaction of standing on the giant mountain wasn't dampened by the fact that the boys were experiencing rain and sleet at the top of Mt. Whitney.

Members attending the hike included Toby Douglas, Greg Finley, John Dumont, Sam Robinson, Mark Sumner, Ron Gill, Tony Danna, Greg Smith, Advisors Lowell Batchner and Martin Balding. Also, Mrs. Balding and son, Harold Balding.

And Now We Have Sock-It-To-Me Sauce

Mash 1 cup of cooked red kidney beans and beat into them: 1 teaspoon chives (frozen or dried), 1/4 teaspoon salt, a dash garlic minced, 3 drops tabasco, 1/2 teaspoon chili powder and enough sour cream to make a smooth dip.

The Editors
The Upland News
Upland, California 91786

Dear Sirs:

My family and I are new residents in the city of Upland being here less than 90 days. We are beginning to regret purchasing our home in this city to raise our family. The reason for our disillusionment with Upland can be found on the front page of your Wednesday, August 14, 1968 edition: "Entire City Council Jim's Co-Chairmen."

This is indeed a sorry state of affairs when people who hold what is defined by law to be a non-partisan position in city government and these people use their position and elected office to actively support a candidate in partisan political campaign. As a new citizen and tax payer in this community, I call upon the Mayor, the City Council, the City Clerk - the entire group to resign. Then work for their candidate - not while they are representing me.

I wonder if the whole governing group from the Mayor, the City Council and the City Clerk really believe they render fair and non-partisan administration of city business. What would they do if this administration would not prove to be beneficial to "Jim?"

What about citizens in this community who are not for Jim? I am sure that Upland is 99 and 100% pure Jim supporters. So again I ask, "What happens to the other citizens of this community who want fair and non-partisan city government? The other side of the coin, so to speak, who desires a city government where it doesn't matter who is a republican or who is a democrat or what have you as long as city government is run for all the citizens of a community regardless of their political or even their religious affiliations. I for one know that never could I contact any member of the city government and expect to receive non-partisan treatment or treatment such as a Jim supporter would undoubtedly receive.

I ask the members of our city government to honestly say that this partisan political action which they have taken would never influence their judgement or administration even if the occasion arose where it would be detrimental to Jim. I doubt it seriously. So where does that leave the other side of the coin. Under a local government which has dropped the mantle of honest non-partisan government.

We who are of the different point of view (not members of the clique) now can honestly and with justification ask how much time is the Mayor, the City Council and the City Clerk giving to "non-partisan" business of the city and how much time and perhaps city funds, stationery, postage and other tax payers resources to Jim's campaign. Will we really know? How can we really know if the entire city government is under influence of a man who is running for a partisan political office. I say foul! Again, I say recall them! If you want honest, fair and non-partisan city government where your own political views are never considered by your representatives then - keep your city government out of political campaigns or we the citizens will find we are ruled not governed.

In conclusion, I would like to comment on a Mr. Rosister's statement concerning "Jim's" legislative skills. How can this be true? How could this man possibly have developed any legislative skills when he has never had any opposition or been up against people of different points of views on the City Council? It appears to me that what Jim wanted - Jim got - for he had his "yes, Jim" team. Again I call upon the gang to resign and then work like mad if they want to for Jim but not while serving in a non-partisan elected position where they are supposed to be representing the citizens of this community and I mean all the citizens, not just Jim.

If they are sincere and honest - they would resign. Their conscience would force them.

Sincerely yours,
David C. Watters

Symphony Announces Artist Competition

A young local musician will have the opportunity to make a solo appearance with the West End Symphony Orchestra during the 1968-69 concert season as a result of the Orchestra's First Annual Young Artist Solo and Prize Competition.

The West End Symphony Orchestra Association has announced the competition which will provide outstanding Pomona Valley instrumentalists an opportunity to compete for a cash award of $100 and a solo appearance on December 7, 1968, with the West End Symphony.

Pomona Valley has been defined as including Walnut and San Dimas on the west, Chino and Pomona on the south, Mt. Baldy and Etiwanda on the north, and Fontana on the east, including all areas between.

The following general rules must be met by all applicants:

Entrants must be 16 to 25 years of age; Competition is open to residents of, or students in the Pomona Valley; Competition is limited to standard orchestral instruments and piano; Auditions must be accompanied (with the exception of piano solos) and played from memory.

Preliminary auditions will be held in early October, 1968, at a location and date to be announced. Applications for the competition should include the name and address of the entrant, selection to be played and composer, and signature of the entrant's teacher.

The completed application must be postmarked no later than September 15, 1968, and mailed to the West End Symphony office, 217 S. Lemon Ave., Ontario, 91761.

The Young Artist Competition is another effort of the West End Symphony's goal to encourage young local musicians. The West End Symphony League awards scholarships annually in the amount of $150, to eligible instrumentalists in the fourth through eighth grades and the scholarships must be applied toward private lessons for the instrument (excluding piano).

Volunteer Bureau Relocates Offices

The West End Volunteer Bureau which is sponsored by the West End Council of Community Services has recently moved into new quarters at 309 N. Euclid Ave., Emmons & Walk Professional Building, Rm. 303, Ontario.

The Volunteer Bureau is urgently in need of additional volunteers. Mrs. Ruth Sugar, Bureau Chairman, announced today. The Volunteer Bureau was created to fill a vital need which has long existed in the West End, explained Mrs. Sugar.

A host of agencies and organizations have applied to the Bureau for volunteer assistance. The Bureau has dispatched volunteers to work for such organizations as Recording For The Blind, Ontario-Pomona Association for Retarded Children, Operation Man-to-Man, and the Health Department as well as many others.

Our future plans include establishment of a Suicide Intervention Program or "Crisis Clinic" through the use of volunteers, continued the Chairman. Needed at the present time are men and women of all ages. We also have many openings for high school youth and college students, said Mrs. Sugar. Openings exist for volunteers on a part-time basis requiring only a few hours a week as well as full-time assignments.

Avast reservoir of untapped talent and ability exists in the West End. The Volunteer Bureau hopes to provide the vehicle for channeling this talent and ability into productive action geared toward building a better community. Individuals or clubs wishing more information about the Volunteer Bureau may call Mrs. Sugar at 986-0043.

West End Family Counseling Inaugurates Research Program

The West End Family Counseling Service will inaugurate a new research program in group therapy techniques within a few days, Bayne Bybee, Executive Director, said.

The staff and Board of Directors recognized a need for a different approach in an area where there has been relatively little research and fewer published findings in professional journals. "We believe that to be more effective we must know the differential between 'controlled' and 'permissive' group sessions," Bybee said. "In other words, certain groups will be controlled in that they see each other only at the therapy sessions, while others will be allowed to set up their own rules for the group." Bybee pointed out that all participants will be married couples and must attend their respective sessions together. Participants will be drawn from the extensive waiting lists of applicants at the agency now.

Paul Namkung, a case-worker at the Department of Social Welfare in Pomona, will assist Mrs. Margaret Larimore, Director of Professional Services, in carrying out the project. Namkung, a native of Korea, received his Master's Degree in Social Work from San Diego State College. His work at the West End Agency will be on a part-time basis.

Namkung has wide experience in group therapy ranging from adolescent activities at Hathaway House to San Diego Jewish Community Center to California Department of Corrections where he served as correctional counselor using group techniques. He became a citizen of the United States in June. Mr. Namkung recently purchased a home in Diamond Bar, where he lives with his wife and small daughter.

Mrs. Larimore said that all the participants in the project were being screened at the present time and that each participant would be aware of the aims and objectives of the project. "We pioneered in 'Crisis Intervention' practices, and our findings received national and international recognition," she said. "Mr. Namkung's arrival gives us an opportunity to investigate an area where much new information is needed, and, if our preliminary findings look promising, we are hopeful that funds from private sources will be made available to expand the research program." The agency is a participant in the United Fund.

ITEM: Polish chrome faucets in kitchen and bathroom at least once each week until they sparkle and shine. They'll corrode and rust less easily.

ITEM: Durable macaroni products are available in more than 150 shapes.

ITEM: If you like to save the pretty ribbons that come on packages, here's a suggestion. Wrap these ribbons about the cardboard tube from a roll of paper towels. To keep the ribbon spotless, simply wrap the tube in plastic food wrap.

Fontana Festival Planned Friday

Contending that there is an art involved in helping people to relate to one another, the Fontana Art Association will host an 'International Food and Art Festival' on August 24 and 25 in the Wheeler Plaza adjacent to the Fontana Art Center and Gallery, 8610 Wheeler Ave., Fontana.

'People of various races, nationalities and religions have a tendency to either stay in their own little groups, or to seek their own kind,' said Mrs. William V. Brown, Manager-Coordinator of the Art Association. 'These people and society in general have much to learn when there is no interchange of ideas and social events,' she asserted.

'The Fontana Art Association hopes to break this deadlock. We feel there are at least two areas that all Nationalities can appreciate together, good food and the Arts,' said Robert H. Schuler, President of the Art Association and Chairman of the Cultural Committee of the Fontana Chamber of Commerce.

All countries represented will dress in their native costumes and serve their own native food.

Works of Art will be on display from all over the Inland Empire. Such noted artists as Marjorie Guimmins, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Collier, Steven Belmont, Will Payne, Joan Handman, Frances Miranda, Elsie Dilly, Glena Gilbert, Dorothy Wolters, Charlotte Chambers, Virginia Sheriff and many more.

The public is cordially invited. The hours are from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Admission free. Come for lunch, then enjoy the Art Show and stay for dinner. Food will be sold to eat at the festival or to be taken out.

A Flea Market will also be held, where no piece of Art will be sold for over $15.

Consumers make some 272 million trips through checkout counters of American food stores each week.

DIABETES TESTS AUG. 22 AND 23

Free diabetes detection tests, sponsored by the Diabetes Association of Southern California, will be available in San Bernardino on Thursday and Friday, August 22 and 23, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. The tests will be given in the associations' new mobile detection unit located in the parking lot at the White Front Store, 499 Orange Show Road, San Bernardino.

According to the Diabetes Association, the simple, painless test takes only a few minutes to perform and no reservations will be necessary. The only preparation needed is to eat a full meal, with dessert or sweet beverage, not less than one hour and not more than three hours before taking the test.

The association reminds everyone who has not had a recent test that there are 150,000 known diabetics in Southern California and probably another 150,000 who have diabetes without knowing it. With modern drugs and proper medical supervision diabetes can now almost always be kept under good control and the diabetic can lead an active, near normal life. But undetected and uncontrolled diabetes can be a dangerous condition, leading to serious, often fatal complications. The only way to be sure is to be tested.

The detection and orientation of new diabetics is one of the most vital and active programs of the Diabetes Association in Southern California. Others include education, research and summer camps for diabetic children.

For further information on any of these programs, you may write to the Diabetes Association at 2007 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles 90-057, or call the San Bernardino chapter representative, Mrs. May Reece-Marek at TU 2-0227.

Your Assemblyman

By John V. Briggs
35th District

Assemblyman John V. Briggs (R-Fullerton) urged Governor Reagan to veto AB 1072 which would authorize the department of Public Works to relocate low income individuals and families who own and reside in housing located in an economically depressed area who are displaced by freeways.

'This bill,' Briggs pointed out to his colleagues in Floor debate, 'gives the Department the right to move into Orange County, and any other counties, and to acquire, through eminent domain proceedings, any unimproved or unoccupied real property or commercial property to provide replacement housing for low-income individuals.'

Briggs pointed out in a letter to the Governor asking him to veto the bill, that the United States Supreme Court recently stripped the homeowner of his rights when selling his home. This bill, 'If you sign it Governor Reagan, will again deprive our citizens of ownership rights without ever having his property on the market.'

'It is one thing to condemn land for public use,' said Briggs. 'It is another to condemn it for low cost housing in communities which are quite capable of deciding for themselves if, where, and whether they want low cost housing. Under AB 1072 the State of California, financed by the taxpayers' dollar, will be free to move freely about the state locating the former economically depressed citizens with virtually the same high-handed authority in which the Highway Commission bulls its way about adopting freeway routes.'

There are 100,000 active tuberculosis cases in the nation, according to Dr. A. H. Holguin, chief of the TB program at the Communicable Disease Center, Atlanta, Ga.

State Forest Service Lists Transfers

Jack D. Burke, State Forest Ranger for the California Division of Forestry, announced both a farewell and a welcome, respectively, to two Assistant State Forest Rangers here in San Bernardino County. Assistant Ranger Donald J. O'Connell is transferring from San Bernardino to the Magalia Conservancy Camp just north of Paradise, California. Replacing O'Connell is Assistant Ranger Howard LaPlant who is transferring from Siskiyou County.

O'Connell began his fire fighting career in 1950 and then served under an assortment of agencies including the United States Navy. In 1954 Don became a Forest Fire Truck Driver at Ramona, and by 1963 had promoted to Assistant Ranger in San Bernardino County. Don will be moving his wife Charleen, son Guy, and niece Elizabeth to a small ranch near Paradise, California.

LaPlant, who is returning to San Bernardino after being away for 11 years, started his career in 1941 as a Firefighter here in San Bernardino. In 1949, Howard was promoted to Assistant Ranger and then later transferred to the Ranger Unit in Siskiyou County in 1957. Howard will be bringing along with him his wife Mildred, son Michael, and daughter Lou Ann.

Fund Drive Sept. 25

The West End United Fund Campaign drive -- September 25 through November 25 -- will raise funds to benefit not only residents of this area, but also reaches out to local servicemen serving in Vietnam.

"This is one of the many reasons our goal has been raised to $360,000," explains Campaign Chairman George Vinnedge. "Stepped-up Red Cross and USO services in Vietnam have been requested by the U.S. Commander there." Vinnedge continues, "The Red Cross field staff is many times larger than in 1965, and they are now assisting more than 16,000 servicemen each month. U.S.O. Clubs in Vietnam have increased 50%."

However, benefits from the once-a-year West End United Fund will continue to provide operating budgets for 24 health, welfare, and character-building agencies.

Vinnedge stated, "By meeting the 1968 goal, the United Fund will be able to continue present programs effectively, despite the increasing costs of services and equipment. This increase is reflected in higher costs of food for children's homes, medicines for clinics, clothing for needy school children, and braces and therapy for the handicapped."

Vinnedge concluded, "Campaign costs are kept to a minimum. West End United Fund volunteer budget committee studies every item of income and expense in each agency budget and money is distributed according to program and need -- not popular appeal. Also the United Drive is a time-saver."

If each agency appealed for funds separately, there would be frequent solicitations. We are anticipating a more successful drive than ever experienced through out the West End, because we know every citizen will want to do his Fair Share in supporting the 24 agencies and the invaluable services they provide."

$10,000 Rock At Fair

VICTORVILLE -- Eleven years ago, a Nevada prospector's shovel struck something so big it numbed his arm.

He grabbed a crowbar and wrestled it from the ground -- a 178-pound turquoise "nugget" three feet long, two feet wide, of such quality that he raced back to town and insured it for $75,000.

Believed to be the world's largest, it will be a center of attention at the lapidary arts show during the Aug. 28 - Sept. 2 San Bernardino County Fair at Victorville.

The story really began here anyhow, according to the story which ensued in True Magazine, when Walter Pilkington, owner of a rock and mineral shop here, grubstaked John Sabin to a prospecting trip to northern Nevada.

Sabin hiked through barren, arid country from the frontier town of Battle Mountain. It was several days before he chipped a corner from a stone and was dazzled by the robin's egg blue splash of turquoise hidden inside.

It was the prize he sought. But turquoise runs in veins, he reasoned. He probed the ground nearby and the object he hit made his arm tingle. After some mighty coaxing, he exposed the largest nugget he -- or, perhaps, anyone -- has ever seen.

In his excitement, Sabin may have overinsured his find. Mineral discoveries are worth only what they will bring, and the monetary value of the piece may be closer to $10,000, said the magazine story, "Rocks to Riches."

"It's still the most magnificent hunk of turquoise I'll ever hope to see," says Harry Farnham, chairman of the rock and mineral display at the county fair.

It's being provided by the present owner, Gemex Co. of Fallbrook, Calif.

Horseshoe Champ To Defend Title

VICTORVILLE -- A four-time winner of the county horseshoe pitching championships, Ralph Randall of Barstow, will lay his title on the line at the San Bernardino County Fair, Aug. 28-Sept. 2.

Doing the same will be slinger Sammy Haigh of Loma Linda, twice winner of the old-timers' tourney. Slated Aug. 29 this year, it's open to anyone over the age of 60. Sammy's 78. He won it last year, and in 1965.

There's also a women's division this year -- same time, 1:30 p.m., but on Aug. 31. Betty Abe of Barstow will defend her claim to the title.

"With five classes this year, we need 38 pitchers to battle it out for 15 trophies," says Randall. He expects to meet seven of them at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 2, Labor Day, in the Class A Contest.

Class C competition (8 men) is set for 10:30 a.m. Aug. 31. Class B (8 men) is the same time Sept. 1.

Contestants may register with Randall at 408 Highland Ave., Barstow, or with Harry Morin, 486 Fairmount Dr., San Bernardino.

GETTING TOGETHER... Things are rolling as the first land links between Macao, Portuguese Province on the China coast, and its two offshore islands, Taipa and Coloane, are being constructed. The roadways across the sea are expected to draw tourists and industries to the small islands, which have played little part in Macao's economic life to date.

Property Tax Rate Drops In County

The average property tax rate in San Bernardino County in the 1967-8 year was $8.97 per $100 of assessed value, a drop of 11 cents, the State Board of Equalization reported recently.

"The statewide average rose only six cents above the fiscal 1967 year to $8.90, a sharp slackening from the 15-30 cent hikes in recent years," Chairman Richard Nevins said.

Although total levies from the property tax reached a record $4.1 billion in California in the past fiscal year, higher assessments and new local government revenues slowed the tax rate increase.

"An additional $223 million in school aid from the state, $30 million in cigarette taxes, and $36 million more in sales taxes helped local government in holding down tax rates," Nevins, who represents Southern California, said.

On a person basis, the property tax burden rose on the average from $194 to $208. This compared to the per capita gain in San Bernardino County from $183.06 to $188.92. Statewide, cities claimed 12 cents from each property tax dollar, counties 29 cents, the schools 53 cents, and special districts six cents -- all unchanged from the 1966-7 year.

In Los Angeles County, 7 cents went to the cities, 25 cents to the schools, and 9 cents to special districts.

The state provided schools with $1.27 billion in the last fiscal year, an increase of $223 million.

In each of the last two years, total assessed value of taxable property increased about $4 billion. But the average tax rate increase of 31 cents a fiscal year ago shrank to six cents this year with more state support for schools and other local government. In 1965-6 the rate rose 22 cents.

Of the total 1967-8 pro-

erty levy, $2.2 billion was used by schools, $1.1 billion by counties, $475 million by cities and $249 million by revenue districts such as soil conservation, lighting, fire and water.

San Bernardino County levied a total of $1,426,348, its cities $9,274, school districts a total of $75,128, and special districts $11,834. The County total was $127,880.

On a per person basis, the property tax burden rose on the average from $94 to $208. This compared to the per capita gain in San Bernardino County from $183.06 to $188.92.

$22,509 For Upland From Highway Tax

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy recently announced the distribution of $50,188,737 among the State, cities and counties as the July apportionment of highway users taxes.

San Bernardino County's share was $472,419.96, and Upland City's share was $22,509.41.

A total of $12,783,736 went directly to the counties; $10,852,985 to cities and $26,552,016 for expenditures on state highways.

The total was derived from the following sources: gasoline tax, $45,713,141; diesel fuel tax, $2,593,209; by transfer from the Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Fund, $1,881,063; and the balance from miscellaneous sources.

Deny Drive-In

directly east of the area proposed for the Taco Lita.

"The Second Avenue residents have been having trouble with water run-off flooding the alley directly behind their homes and also problems with cars racing up and down the alley in the evening hours," said Corrington.

Both Planning Commission and Council members felt that the Taco Lita would cause traffic problems in an already congested area and would not add to the aesthetic appearance of the area. The police department had advised the council that another drive-in in the area would compound problems they were presently having with teenage diners.

Although council members were in sympathy with and appreciated the efforts of Milhiser to sell his land for the use originally intended, they upheld the denial of the requested permit.

Councilman Ronald Rossitter, pointed out that "The council has to exercise judgment not act as an arbitrary body, but must weigh the equities and decide what is best for the community and the residents directly involved."

CHRISTENSEN 'NO'

was opposed to the action of the council. He stated that he felt that the original C-4 zoning should have remained and charged that the emergency ordinance of the council calling for a CUP was "an injustice on the part of the council."

"To change zoning on land which a man bought in good faith, thereby preventing him from selling his land" should not be allowed by the council. He pointed out the fact that it was only a short time ago that the C-4 zoning was honored for McDonald's Drive-In and he was opposed to the council's attitude in demanding a CUP in a similar appeal.

Lee Travers, assistant city manager informed Christensen that the CUP governing drive-ins had been in effect for more than a year. The emergency ordinance passed by the city council allowed the council time to review and rewrite the existing ordinance in an effort to more clearly define what constituted a drive-in. This action followed the Taco Lita builder's claims that the proposed eating establishment was a family type restaurant.

HIGH SCHOOL "V" CLUB -- Continuing their Viet Nam servicemen's project, members of the Alta Loma High School V Club mailed another wagon load of gift parcels last week, financed by recent fundraising events including a fashion show. Cucamonga Post Officials Ben Calderon and Bruce Owens accepted the first of the shipment with the approval of Bob Grimby, Debbie Thomas and Bill Heaton atop the wagon, Vickie Martinez, Robbie Ridehour, Evelyn Gass, Cherlie Griffey and Bob Brazell. Mrs. Brazell, summer advisor to the club, helped with the transportation.

Horseracing On Tap At Fair

VICTORVILLE -- Horseracing, "the sport of kings," is now a royal treat for all at the San Bernardino County Fair.

Five days of thundering action, post time daily at 1 p.m., are promised Aug. 29, 30, 31, Sept. 1 and 2 (Labor Day), says Edward A. Rodeman, president of the San Bernardino County Horseracing Assn., the sponsor. There are races to be ridden for speedy quarter horses, Appaloosas and Thoroughbreds. Distances are from 250 yards to six furlongs on the fairgrounds' half-mile track -- rated one of the best in the state.

The fair at Victorville instituted the county's first formalized horseracing in 1965. The equipment and facilities, including 78 first-class stalls, is valued at some $160,000. Racing fans may view the action from a shaded, 1,425-seat grandstand.

Cucamongan Enters Fair Fish Contest

POMONA--Tony Bravo of Cucamonga collects a special kind of butterfly.

Whereas most butterflies glide through the air, Bravo's find themselves most at home in the water. There's a reason for that though -- they're fish.

For the past two months Bravo, of 8607 E. Ninth St. address, has been in the tropical fish collecting business. He plans to put his hobby to work by entering some of his prize specimens in aquarium competition at the 41st annual Los Angeles County Fair, included among his prizes is a butterfly betta or two.

Over 100 other aquarium enthusiasts plan to join the Cucamonga resident in the competition. Exhibits will be divided into two sections. Guppies and bettas will be exhibited for 10 days, Sept. 13-22. Goldfish and bettas will be displayed throughout the show.

The largest county fair in the nation, the Pomona exposition will run 17 days, Sept. 13 through 9. Over a million visitors are expected.

Lawn Furniture
If you've just bought new aluminum lawn furniture, take steps to preserve the bright metal surface. Unless it is protected from the elements it will soon become dull. Ask your paint dealer for a clear exterior lacquer, intended for use on aluminum, to brush or spray on the surface. This will also help to prevent steel fittings on the furniture from rusting.

Kangaroo Mouse Competes With Horses

VICTORVILLE -- It's the daffiest.

It's a "new kind of rat race" -- the "Daily Dipodomys Doodle" -- and it will regale its rooters all six days of the San Bernardino County Fair, opening Aug. 28 at Victorville.

Dipodomys is the fancy name for the kangaroo mouse which abounds here in the High Desert. Inch-for-inch, he outleaps anything on the face of the earth. With a 1-ounce, 3-inch body, he can leap 12 feet -- 48 times his own length, not including that 7-inch tail he uses as a rudder.

The mighty mite already has won the desert-survival contest. He's a tee-totaler when it comes to water.

Now he's pitted against his pixyish kin. And unlike the five days of horseracing at the fair, anybody can put a $20 entry fee on a mouse and collect at the paywindow -- $75 to the winner, $50 and $25 for second and third at the Labor Day finals Sept. 2.

Qualifying trials will be held at 6:30 p.m. daily Aug. 28 through Sept. 1. Entries close at 6 p.m. Sept. 1. Fees may be paid by mail or at the fair.

First- and second-place daily winners get a trophy and ribbon, respectively. And their romping rodents get a crack at the Labor Day finals when the stakes are cash.

What's more, the jumper with the best time across the winners' circle will establish the official "world's record." Fair directors will put $100 into a purse and add $100 each successive year until this record is broken.

No betting is permitted on the outcome of any contest. That $2 is an entry fee. It means that a Dipodomys will be picked and entered in your name. Mailed entries should be addressed to "Dipodomys Doodle, PO Box 820, Victorville, Calif. 92392."

No more than two Dipodomys per owner are allowed in the grand finals. An owner may provide his own Dipodomys. It will be marked with food-color dye for identification and submitted to the official Dipodomys handler.

RULES
FOR THE 1968 DAILY DIPODOMYS DOODLE
General Rules --
1. Daily qualifying trials. Entry fee is $2 per Dipodomys, payable on entry.

2. Qualifying trials will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, August 28, Thursday, Aug. 29, Friday, Aug. 30, Saturday, Aug. 31, and Sunday, Sept. 1. Grand finals will be held Monday, Sept. 2, at 6:30 p.m.

3. Entries will close at 6 p.m. Sept. 1, 1968.

4. First- and second-place winners on Aug. 28-29-30-31 and Sept. 1 will be eligible to compete in the grand finals on Sept. 2, 1968.

5. The daily qualifying trials will be held in the "Dipodomys Doodle" arena on the San Bernardino County Fairgrounds, Victorville.

6. The first Dipodomys to cross the finish-line circle, after the starting gate is opened, shall be declared the winner, both during qualifying trials and in the grand finals.

7. After the Dipodomys contestants are placed in the starting gate, no one may touch it. Failure to leave the gate within 45 seconds after it is opened disqualifies the contestant.

8. Total elapsed time of each first and second shall be recorded.

9. The decision of judges will be final.

10. No betting will be permitted on the outcome of any contest.

11. The owner may provide his own Dipodomys for the qualifying trials. It shall be marked with identifying food-color marking and submitted to the official fair Dipodomys handler.

Grand Finals Rules --

A. Evidence of drug-ging or doping of any Dipodomys shall result in its disqualification and forfeiture of all prizes.

B. All entries shall be placed in the starting gate by the person(s) designated by the fair management. No other person will be allowed with the "Dipodomys Doodle" arena.

C. First-place winners in each qualifying trial shall receive a trophy. Second-place winners will receive a ribbon award. First- and second-place winners will compete for a cash award in the grand finals on Monday, Sept. 2, 1968.

D. First place in the Sept. 2 grand finals will receive $75. Second-place winner will receive $50. Third place will receive $25.

E. The shortest elapsed time recorded during the 1968 "Dipodomys Doodle" will be considered the world's record and $100 will be placed in a purse, with an additional $100 to be added each successive year until this record is broken.

F. No more than two Dipodomys per owner shall be allowed in the grand finals.

NOTE: First Dipodomys across the finish line wins the finals. World's record may be established during the qualifying trials.

New Techniques Found To Revive Stopped Hearts

A young man sat in the waiting room of his doctor's office one afternoon. Suddenly he moaned and toppled off his chair.

His heart had stopped. Technically, he was dead. The doctor rushed out, took one look at his patient -- who had been waiting for a routine physical check-up -- and, with the help of his nurse, rolled him on his back, undid his collar, tilted his head back and started to work.

As the nurse breathed through the patient's mouth, forcing air in and out of his lungs, ten to twelve times a minute, the doctor put his hands at the base of the breastbone and began to pump rhythmically, sixty times a minute.

While the stunned people in the waiting room watched, the team continued to pump oxygenated blood through the man's body to keep up the artificial circulation until his heart could take over.

Soon, his heart did begin to beat again, as it often does in such cases, and the young man recovered -- literally brought back from the dead by the quick action of the doctor and his nurse.

The doctor later discovered through tests given at the hospital that a mild heart attack caused this "sudden death." There are other possible causes for sudden stoppage of the heart. It is something that occasionally happens during an operation or in drowning, electrical shock, suffocation, blood loss and severe drug reactions.

The victim of "sudden death" can recover fully -- provided trained help is available immediately.

Speed is essential because if circulation stops for as little as four minutes the delicate tissues of the brain can suffer irreparable damage from a shortage of oxygen.

For many years the only practical place to revive a stopped heart was the operating room, for the only successful way to keep blood circulating was to massage the heart by hand, and that involved opening the chest cavity.

In 1960 the picture changed. A team from Johns Hopkins Medical School devised and perfected the technique for closed-chest massage used later by the young man's doctor.

As closed-chest compression has gained wide acceptance, more and more people likely to be confronted with heart arrest are being trained when to use closed-chest massage and how to do it properly.

Simple as the technique is, even a physician needs special training to avoid damage to the heart, lungs, liver and ribs.

In some cases of "sudden death" the heart will not resume normal beating and becomes a mass of twitching, quivering fibers -- its usually well-coordinated electrical system gone awry.

In such a case, the quivering heart is unable to pump and will not begin beating of its own accord. Electronics have come to the rescue and with devices known as defibrillators, a jolt of electricity is given to the heart to halt the quivering. Then the electrical system can begin to work as it should and the heart resumes.

Defibrillators have recently become standard emergency equipment in hospitals.

Advances in reversing

"sudden deaths" have been so dramatic in the past few years that some physicians are dreaming of even bigger and better rescue techniques.

One such dream is that circulation can be maintained mechanically after "death" for hours, or even days, while physicians attempt to correct the cause of death.

Several machines to handle artificial pumping have already been designed and the biggest stumbling blocks to this particular dream are the medical techniques needed actually to reverse a fatal illness.

But visionary as such dreams may seem, one can never tell what the future may hold.

Certainly at the turn of the century, the hopes of reviving stopped hearts must have fallen into the same dream category, and we can all take heart that physicians have these dreams -- and the perseverance and dedication to try to make them come true.

THE BERKSHIRE HOUSE PRESENTS ... Designs A La Carte

by BILL LUNAE—A.I.A.
Interior DECORATOR

Scientifically planned color schemes with appropriate furnishings and correct lighting are of vital importance in commercial decorating. In planning color schemes for commercial interiors, the nature of the business must be considered, and for the people who use it, room dimensions as well as light sources.

Color is a psychological as well as a technical problem. In all such interiors, color and furniture should be selected for their functional qualities. The background and architectural design is studied first; then color is selected according to exposure and need.

Student At Casa Colina Wins Therapy Essay Contest

A 22-year-old Loma Linda University Occupational Therapy student recently took first place in a nationwide contest sponsored by the American Occupational Therapy Association.

The winner, Judy Doss of Riverside, responded to an appeal to all O.T. students to submit their recruitment and promotion ideas. The best of those submitted will be used nationally by AOTA.

Students from 35 universities across the country competed in "Operation: Male," contributing essays outlining their theories of how best to attract more men to the field of occupational therapy. Miss Doss' essay included ideas to appeal to men who would prefer to employ their avocations gainfully.

Occupational Therapy was born out of World War II as a method to rehabilitate physically, mentally and socially disabled persons through the use of purposeful activities. Says Miss Doss, "Occupational therapy as a career is a course in life. The man who enjoys photography, watchmaking, carpentry, leatherwork, metalwork, auto mechanics, architecture and drafting, printing and type-setting, music and sports can find a place for each of these skills in occupational therapy. The profession affords men the opportunity to become acquainted with people of diversified interests and backgrounds, and to help many of these people resume lives of usefulness. Almost any hobby a man has can be incorporated usefully into an O.T. program, thus combining pleasure with utility."

Miss Doss went on to tell that men in the field of O.T. advance far more rapidly to administrative positions than do women; that their salaries are higher; and that if world travel appeals to them, O.T. should be considered because qualified Occupational Therapists are in demand the world over.

Miss Doss' brother, Al, is also an Occupational Therapy student, presently interning at the City of Hope in Los Angeles. Loma Linda University's student affiliation program with Casa Colina has allowed Miss Doss to work in Casa Colina Hospital's O.T. department for 3 months this summer. She returns to Loma Linda as a senior in the fall.

Says she about the Casa Colina program: "Working here has given me a better understanding of practical application of O.T. I've been very fortunate to be able to work in such a fine department. I'd like to work for Casa Colina when I graduate."

Calif. Eases Trailer Regulations In 1968

Two pieces of urgency legislation which make life a little easier for owners of campers are now effective, California Highway Patrol Commissioner H. W. Sullivan has announced.

The controversial section of the vehicle code which since November 8, 1967, made it illegal to park any trailer coach, housecar or vehicle equipped with a camper upon any highway during hours of darkness has been repealed. The law was never enforced, since the legislature indicated its intention to repeal it in a resolution passed late last year. Repeal of this section does not affect other sections of the law dealing with parking of motor vehicles.

The second bill, AB835 by Assemblyman John Foran, defines a three-axle housecar, permits it to operate at speed limits that apply to passenger vehicles, and makes it possible for holders of regular driver's licenses to drive such a vehicle.

The new vehicle code amendments serve to bring the code up to date with a new development in the camper picture—a camper equipped with an axle that is designed to support a portion of the weight of the camper unit.

The Foran bill specifies that a vehicle equipped with such a camper is a "three-axle housecar," regardless of the method of attachment or manner of registration. Except for this special type of equipment, a vehicle with a camper is not considered a housecar unless the camper is permanently attached.

The "three-axle housecar" is the only exception to the rule that vehicles with three or more axles require a Class 2 driver's license.

Scripps Instructor Works On Gifted-Average Research

CLAREMONT — Do gifted college students complete their educations more frequently than average students?

How is the curiosity motive of the gifted built into daily activities? What environment proves most productive in full utilization of the gifted person's abilities?

These are a few of the questions Lois Langland, Professor of Psychology at Scripps College, hopes to answer as a part of her summer research program funded by a grant from Scripps through Ford Foundation Funds.

Miss Langland is Counseling Psychologist and Associate Manager of the Student Counseling Center at the University of California at Los Angeles from 1957-65. During that time, she was involved with the selection and counseling of the students chosen for the Gifted and Honors Programs at UCLA.

"Entrance requirements at UCLA are such that the top 12 1/2% of the applying high school graduates are granted admission. The Gifted Program involved students in the top 3% of the entering class," she said.

"They were selected on the basis of academic achievement. After their selection, we gave them other tests to study personality style, interests, aptitude and values. Then, if students wished, they were given counseling."

HOW MANY GRADUATE Approximately 800 students were in the programs from 1957 to 1965 and now Miss Langland, working with the College of Letters and Science at UCLA, is attempting to locate the 800 and discover how many of them were graduated, after what length of time, and what they did after graduation.

"I'm also interested in analyzing the results of the initial personality, values, interests and aptitude tests in the light of the students' circumstances," she said.

Miss Langland plans to select three groups for intensive studies.

"This will probably be done using different classes; for instance, those in the Class of 1957, 1961 and 1963 perhaps. At different stages of the program, different tests were used and this way we can study the information we have to see which tests are most useful."

Thus far Miss Langland has found that in one group the majority of the Honors or Gifted students finished college in four or five years. A few finished in three years and one or two after ten years. Some changed majors; others took a year or more for work experiences; some assumed lighter course loads.

STAYING POWER

Her prime interest in the study is to evaluate the staying power of those with high academic aptitudes and to study the motivation and life style of the gifted.

"I hope eventually to interview individual students, both those who did not complete college and those who did. Just as everyone who has a talent for track does not necessarily go out for it, so people with academic talent do not always make that talent the central focus in their lives. The important thing is that a person succeed in a productive life and be relatively happy with what he or she does. The total human being is what I'm interested in," she said.

Miss Langland, who received her B.S. in Education from Northwest Missouri State College, her M.A. in English from Smith College and her M.A. and Ph.D. in Psychology from UCLA, plans to publish the results of her studies in professional psychological journals.

HALF-PAST TEEN

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

by RON WHITE

Did you know a woman once coached a major football team? . . . Although it doesn't show in the official records, it's been said that in 1888 when the famous Walter Camp was Yale's coach, he was unable to attend most of the practices and games . . . His wife took over and became the coach on the scene that year.

Here's a tough, but interesting football question . . . As you know, Notre Dame has had many great passers over the years — such as Paul Hornung, Daryle Lamonic, Johnny Lujack, Ralph Guglielmi, Angelo Bertelli and Terry Hanratty . . . Of all these great passers, which one completed the most passes while playing for Notre Dame? . . . Which one holds the Notre Dame school record? . . . The answer may surprise you . . . Among all those great stars, it is Ralph Guglielmi.

Can you imagine a man who was blind in one eye — and often couldn't see half the field when he went back to pass — becoming a star passer in pro football? . . . Tommy Thompson quarterbacked the Philadelphia Eagles to the National Football League championship in 1946 and 1949 and led the league in passing statistics in 1948 even though he was blind in his left eye! . . . Thompson stands as a great example of man being able to triumph over adversity.

EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL - C. Mack Gilliland, right, as the Doctor, tries to give his patient, Opal, left, played by Sandee Gilliland, an insurance physical, but Opal has her mind on other matters, much to his dismay. A scene from Valley Community Theatre's production of "Everybody Loves Opal," opening this Thursday, August 1, 1968, and continuing Fridays and Saturdays thereafter through August 31. Curtain time is 8:30. Ticket reservations can be made by calling Na 26954.

PICTURE THIS!

Keep camera handy for shooting your personal travelogue. A compact model like the Kodak Instamatic S-10 camera is easy to tote—can be packed temporarily in purse or hand luggage.

HOW TO PACK FOR A WRINKLE-FREE WEEKEND

When it comes to packing, a weekend trip requires almost as much planning as a trip around the world. The traveler's goal is to include everything without arriving pack-horse style.

Mrs. Beth Frantz, Travel-Fashion Advisor for the Samsonite Company, logs over 100,000 miles a year. She can pack a weekend wardrobe in a 15 1/2" x 8 1/2" beauty case. Unbelievable? Not if you practice packing pointers like these:

Pack travel-size cosmetics in the molded plastic tray on top. This is the spot, too, for small items that might be needed enroute and immediately upon arrival. Something you'll want to keep, literally, on hand is your camera. It's possible to take excellent pictures from airplane, bus, car or train with a simple model like a Kodak Instamatic S-10 camera. These snapshots, taken enroute, will help create a full pictorial record of your holiday. Because the S-10 camera is compact and retracts when not in picture-taking position, it can be slipped easily into pocket or purse. If it's necessary to pack it temporarily, it fits neatly into the plastic tray of the beauty case.

When it comes to selecting clothes, make a list of weekend activities. Then pack one, and only one, outfit for each occasion. There's a trick to fitting everything in and getting it all out wrinkle-free. Roll lingerie and soft items in sets and put them aside. Place slacks and skirts in the case with waistband at the rear and the rest of the garment extending over the front of the case. Fold dresses lengthwise in thirds and pack at right angle to slacks with dress skirts extended over the short end of the case. Now place the lingerie rolls in the case using the little spaces between rolls for extra film cartridges, batteries and flashcubes.

Next fold slacks and skirts over the lingerie. Leave the remainder hanging over the top of the case. Dresses are folded over the slacks. Continue this rotation—folding back and forth—until everything is neatly packed. One garment cushions the other to prevent wrinkling.

Besides offering tips on packing clothes efficiently, Mrs. Frantz suggests ways to make travel more enjoyable. Don't forget your sunglasses and if you wear prescription lenses bring a spare pair. Check your camera's batteries and take along extras so you don't miss any photo opportunities. Flashcubes are a must for those indoor shots. As efficient as bus, train and air travel is, luggage has a way of getting lost occasionally. To expedite a speedy return put identification inside as well as outside of your case.

Youngsters who pitch Little League baseball should be discouraged from throwing a curve ball, according to doctors at Orthopaedic Hospital, Los Angeles. There are many ways for a youngster to be injured throwing a curve, explained one of the doctors. The greater force of throwing forward with a twist may pull off a portion of the bone growth centers in the elbow. The same force, he added, may also injure the blood supply, tear muscles and even cause small fractures. An injured growth center cannot be repaired and the child may never have full motion of his elbow. Once the child reaches full growth, the danger is eliminated.

IS YOUR BOAT IN THE WAY?

A well placed boat is just as important as an accurate cast, and the hand on the throttle may be as responsible for subduing a trophy fish as the trembling fingers locked around the rod.

Proper boat handling, say the fishing experts at Mercury outboards, plays a vital role in fishing. Unfortunately, they add, its true significance often becomes apparent too late... after a good fish has been lost.

Most anglers are reasonably adept at handling their rigs while trolling and casting. And hooking and netting ordinary size fish present no special problems.

However, things change quickly when the once-in-a-lifetime lunger comes along. Everyone focuses attention on the battle, and tends to forget that the boat can be a big aid to a happy outcome.

Some guides run their motors during the entire battle to help the fisherman hold the fish out in unobstructed water and to turn with the fish. When the fish shows signs of tiring and resistance slackens, the guide backs off steadily so that continual pressure can be exerted without letting the fish get a second wind up near the hull.

Large fish such as pike, salmon, trout and muskies have a peculiar affection for boat bottoms—particularly when about to be landed. They may slide docilely alongside, appearing completely whipped. Then, splash... down and under.

Unless the angler plunges his rod deep into the water and the helmsman swings the boat quickly, say the Mercury lads, something's going to get snagged and the escape made good.

Since you can't keep a big fish away from the boat, keep the boat away from the fish until he's definitely beaten.

Idyllwild Music Festival Set For Next Two Weekends

The seventh annual Idyllwild Music Festival has been scheduled by the University of Southern California - Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts for the weekends of Aug. 23-24-25 and Aug. 30-31-Sept. 1.

Climaxing the 18th summer season on the mile high campus, the Festival will offer six concerts including performances by the ISOMATA Festival Symphony Orchestra, the 180-voice Choir and Madrigal Singers, and Alice and Eleanor Schoenfeld and the Chamber Players.

Daniel Lewis will conduct the Festival Orchestra. Lewis, conductor of the Orange County Symphony Orchestra and associate professor of music at California State College at Fullerton, formerly taught at the University of California, San Diego, and conducted the Sherwood Hall Orchestra, a professional chamber music group in La Jolla. This spring he was guest conductor of the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra.

For the seventh year, Robert Holmes, Marina del Rey, will conduct the Festival Choir and Madrigal Singers. Holmes, a past president of the Western Division, Music Educators National Conference, is instructor of choral music at Beverly Hills High School. He formerly headed the Music Department at Hollywood High School.

Concerts are slated at 8:15 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and at 3 p.m. on Sundays. All except the last concert, Sunday (Sept. 1) will be held on the USC-ISOMATA campus. To accommodate the anticipated crowd, the final concert will be held—as was last year's final performance—in the 1000-capacity gymnasium of Desert Sun School, Idyllwild.

Season tickets are $9 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under. (Children under 5 years are not admitted.)

Single admission for Friday nights is $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for children; for Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons, $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Reservations may be made by writing to USC-ISOMATA, Idyllwild, California 92349, or by calling Area Code 714, 659-2171.

Vermont Has Little Ocean—and Only True Yankees!

Vermont, the only New England state that does not touch the sea, possesses a little ocean of its own—the long, beautiful Lake Champlain that fills half of its western border opposite New York.

Actually, the lake is a flooded valley between mountain ranges, with the Adirondacks rising from its Western shore, the Green Mountains from its eastern shore.

The only true Yankees, local residents claim, live in Vermont. And picture-taking tourists find the small villages highly photogenic. An authentic country store, restored and stocked as it was in 1897, is in the village of Weston in the southern part of the state.

Dips are simple. For the hot dog and pretzels, use catsup, chili sauce or mustard as a dip—and use the same for spreading on the hamburgers. Or make sock-it-to-me hot sauce in advance and use it for any and all purposes at the barbecue—it has a full, delicious flavor.

Add "Twist" To Your Barbecue

Here's a great new twist from the Pennsylvania Dutch country for your next barbecue—hot pretzels. (That's the way the pretzel bakers themselves eat pretzels.) The trick is to put the pretzels on a pan or piece of foil where they'll stay oven hot—and eat them with a variety of simple dips (the pretzel bakers just dip them in mustard straight from the jar). For the barbecue itself—how about juicy hamburgers, mini-dogs (to be picked up in the fingers and dunked and eaten)—with fresh roasted ears of corn and crispy cold radishes and tomatoes? Thick slices of tomato are delicious and juicy with the hamburgers.

Giant Machines
Giant new machines capable of boring a six-foot diameter hole through 180 feet of rock in less than two weeks are speeding development of International Nickel's mines in Ontario and Manitoba. The raise borers can complete a job in one-quarter of the time it used to take.

Calder's "Man"
Alexander Calder's sculpture "Man," a 67-foot, 46-ton nickel stainless steel statue created for Expo 67, has been given to the city of Montreal by International Nickel. Composed of 3,280 feet of stainless steel sheets, 102 strips and 4,000 bolts, the largest work of the renowned sculptor will be permanently displayed in a park.

IRS Checking Out Trucks, Buses In US

Owners of trucks and buses in California were advised today by District Director of Internal Revenue F.S. Schmidt that a thorough check will be made to insure compliance with provisions of the Federal Highway Use Tax Law.

Mr. Schmidt said that lists of owners of taxable motor vehicles are being compared with Federal Highway Use Tax returns filed, to assure that all taxable vehicles were reported and to determine whether they were reported in the correct tax categories.

Mr. Schmidt pointed out that highway use tax revenue collected by the Federal government is returned to the states to help pay the costs of the Interstate Highway System now under construction.

IRS Publication No. 349, "Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Truck-Tractors, and Buses," can be obtained without charge by dropping a postcard to Tax Forms; P.J., P.O. Box 1711, Los Angeles, Calif. 90053.

Jetcraft Alloys

Jetliners land at almost 200 miles per hour. To help them come to a stop, nickel alloys are used in critical areas of "thrust reversers" attached to each engine, which catch the hot gases normally propelling the plane, and divert them forward to slow it down.

Gardener's Checklist

Members of the Podocarpus family just have to be classed as garden aristocrats. They are distinctive in the landscape, providing a texture and gracefulness unequalled by any other.

There are many members of the family to consider. Each has a distinct characteristic to warrant your consideration.

Podocarpus macrophylla (Yew Pine) is probably the best known. It is unsurpassed in a door-side planting, where growth can be kept columnar. It seems to thrive anywhere. The leaves are long and narrow, yew-like in appearance. A shade of green all its own makes the Yew Pine a fine landscape choice where an unusual upright-growing evergreen is desired.

Fern Pine is a smaller-leaved family member. Its foliage is softer and more feathery with a fern-like appearance. Inland gardeners may find this one will want some summer shade. Which may be best after all, as Fern Pine after all, as Fern Pine is a natural for a tropical garden setting where other shade plants are used extensively.

Both Fern Pine and Yew Pine may be used as espaliers against a wall or fence.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen can show you other Podocarpus varieties: Podocarpus nagi, a tall grower with broader leaves, and Podocarpus macrophylla maki, a shrubby Yew Pine. The Podocarpus gracillior is another popular variety similar to Fern Pine. The leaves are longer than those of the Fern Pine, but the texture and delicate appearance are the same. It is best in coastal gardens.

You never know whether to call Podocarpus family members shrubs or trees. Technically, they are trees, but C.A.N. nurserymen will tell you nine times out of ten you'll see them grown as shrubs. They are very versatile and easy to train, beside being graceful and attractive. Best yet, they need not be pampered, requiring only normal garden care, and little attention where pest control is concerned. For plants that provide so much enjoyment and beauty, and ask little in return, you can't go wrong with the Podocarpus family.

Star Jasmine

Those in-the-know may call it Trachelospermum jasminoides. Those who garden refer to it as Star Jasmine, and because of its many uses in the landscape, hold it in the same esteem as they would a celebrity.

And, a superstar it is. Star Jasmine excels as a vine. It can be trained on a trellis to form an attractive screen. Or left to spread attractively as a shrubby ground cover or to spill over a retaining wall. It can even be grown as a container plant to enhance the appeal of an outdoor living area.

Wherever it is grown, you can count on the evergreen Star Jasmine to dispense its delicious perfume throughout much of the late spring and summer. Its small, white blossoms, that resemble stars, are very fragrant. They seem to "go" with the attractive deep green, glossy foliage.

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, Star Jasmine is well-adapted to most California climates. Even in interior valleys it fares nicely. It will take a shaded situation either inland or on the coast, but it blooms more profusely when it gets some sun.

Star Jasmine isn't a rapid-growing vine, but will ultimately cover an unbelievable amount of area where trellis support is provided. As a ground cover, it may be maintained between one and two feet in height. It will take shearing-as will a hedge. Gardeners who like to prune and clip plants will even find Star Jasmine will form into an attractive hedge. But, according to C.A.N. members, this will require a minimum of three to four shapings a year. The reward is worth the effort.

You'll find Star Jasmine plants available in many sizes in C.A.N. nurseries: Everything from small rooted plants in flats to large, 5 gal. size specimens. Many nurseries have the plants pre-started on trellises or staked upright.

Whatever the size, you'll find Star Jasmine will put on a year round performance in your garden -- and that it truly rates billing as a superstar.

Vocation Hints

1. Before taking that vacation, be sure to soak your garden thoroughly before leaving. Leave written instructions to whomever is going to watch over your garden. A good idea for house plants is to leave them in the kitchen sink after a thorough soaking.

2. Heat-loving annuals such as Marigolds, Celosia (Cockscomb), Zinnias, Petunias, and Dwarf Dahlias may be set out now for bloom in a few short weeks.

3. Summertime weed control in lawns is simplified by chemicals incorporated with lawn food. Ask your C.A.N. nurseryman for his recommendation for use on the type grasses which comprise your lawn.

4. Feed Camellias, Azaleas, and Rhododendrons again this month with a complete acid food. Water it well.

5. Cut back Delphiniums when the flowers fade. This will encourage a new crop in many climatic areas.

Nickel for Stainless

Stainless steels are by far the largest market for nickel. They are noted for their corrosion resistance, strength, toughness and appearance.

'Gourmet Wine Cooking' --Easy Way-Published

Fast and easy preparation of exciting food is the starting point for a new cookbook just published by Wine Advisory Board. The book is called Gourmet Wine Cooking the Easy Way. It contains more than 500 recipes and food ideas.

Priced at $2.50, the new 128 - page cookbook has a wipe-clean plastic cover and lie-flat spiral binding. A full color cover photograph of Chicken Della Robbia hints at the appeal of the recipes inside.

Champagne punches and other mixed drink recipes are included in the book, as well as sections on appetizers, soups, meat, poultry, fish and shellfish, cheese, eggs, pastas, rice, vegetables, quick breads, salads, sauces, and desserts. Most recipes feature convenience foods -- frozen, concentrated, canned, dried, pre-mixed, and pre-cooked. Wine is the magic ingredient providing the gourmet flair. Gourmet Wine Cooking the Easy Way, is the third cookbook from Wine Advisory Board. The other two, "Favorite Recipes of California Wine-makers" and "Adventures in Wine Cooking" have sold more than half a million copies over the past four years. There is no repetition of recipes in the three books.

Protective Beauty

The brilliant "chrome" finish on the steel bumpers of the modern automobile is actually imparted by multi-layered nickel-plating under chromium. The nickel layers provide the durable, bright foundation, and shield against corrosion, nicks, fumes and abrasions.

Dove Shooting Season Opens Sept. 1 Prospects In This Area Promising

LOS ANGELES COUNTY -- Dove populations normal with Antelope Valley and the Saugus district probably best for unattached hunters. Local inquiry should be made regarding firearms closures around Palmdale and Lancaster. Alfalfa fields and uncultivated fields with dove weed (turkey mullen) now hold fair numbers of birds.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY - Dove population is low right now in the Victorville-Barstow-Lucerne area and along the foothills of the north and east slopes of the San Bernardino Mountains. Doves are numerous now around water in the New York-Providence Mountains in the eastern part of the county, but scarce in the Needles area. Doves are scattered in grain fields and other private farm lands on the coastal side of the mountains.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY - Doves are not plentiful in the Sage, Perris, Winchester, Moreno and Lakeview areas but this is private land. Coachella Valley's dove population is only fair at this time. Hunters should check locally regarding county firearms closures.

Unless heavy rain or chilly nights change the present picture, the 1968 dove hunting season which opens statewide on Sunday Sept. 1 should be one of Southern California's best in years, according to Department of Fish and Game reports from the field.

The hunting season on brush, cottontail and pigmy rabbits also opens Sept. 1 in Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial Counties, eastern Kern County and northern California. The rabbit season has been open since July 6 in the rest of California.

Right now, says the DFG, the three general areas with the greatest populations of doves are the Imperial Valley, the lower Colorado River, and the desert country of southern Inyo and eastern Kern Counties. Whether the birds will stay put until Sept. 1 remains to be seen.

The DFG reports normal populations of mourning doves elsewhere throughout Southern California, with local firearms closures and private lands the hunters' toughest problems.

SPLIT SEASON

California this year has a split dove season that applies statewide. The first hunting period is the full month of September, 1 through 30. The second hunting period opens Nov. 30 and ends Dec. 8.

The daily bag limit is 10 doves, with a maximum of 20 allowed in possession after opening day. White-winged doves may be taken only in Imperial, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties and must be included in the regular bag and possession limit along with mourning doves, ringed turtle doves and Chinese spotted doves.

There is no open season on Mexican ground doves.

Legal shooting hours on doves are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset in the area being hunted. Shooting hours on rabbits also start one-half hour before sunrise but continue to one-half hour after sunset.

DOCTORS SAVE TIME

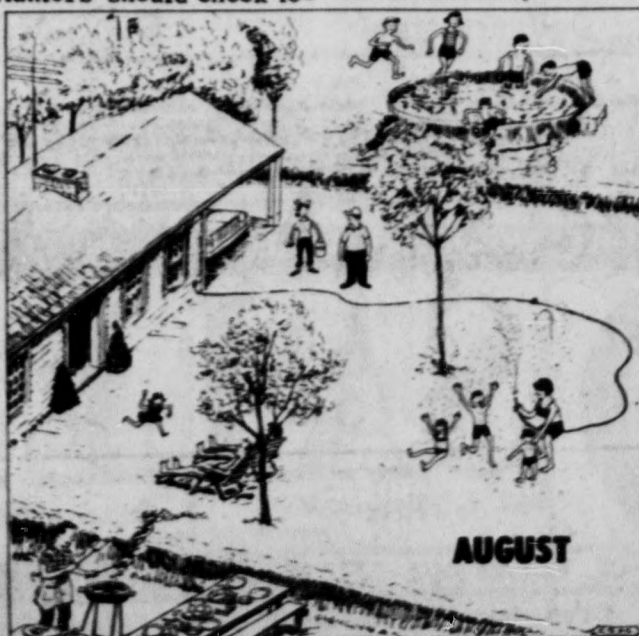

House calls can be very time-consuming for busy doctors.

Three doctors in England have found a way to save such time. When phoned by an ailing patient who's not bedridden, they send a chauffeur-driven limousine to pick him up at his home and bring him to their offices.

LEGAL OR ILLEGAL? There are some strange laws on the books in Washington, D.C.

Take, for instance, the one about building carports on private property.

It's legal for a resident there to build something like a carport on his own property, but illegal for him to park his car in it.

AUGUST

New Law Stops Discriminatory Pricing By Drug Manufacturers

LOS ANGELES--The California Pharmaceutical Association's long and successful campaign to end pharmaceutical manufacturers' discriminatory pricing becomes effective with the governor's signature Aug. 12 on Assembly Bill No. 971, according to an announcement by Basil Harris, president of the state professional society.

"We believe that the California State Legislature, through the passage of AB 971, by Assemblymen Crown and Meyers and Senator Petris, have provided an effective tool with which to gain the cooperation of the nation's pharmaceuticals, manufacturers in regards to correcting their pricing policies," Harris said.

"The California Pharmaceutical Association has been fighting this policy for years, and considers it a victory for the private sector, the third-party payment programs, the state government and the private practitioners," he continued.

Assembly Bill 971, which now becomes law, provides "with respect to the California Medical Assistance Program, that the term 'prescribed drug' shall not include any drug which, because the manufacturer charges differing prices on a discriminatory basis or discriminatorily refuse to sell, the drug is not available on the same terms and conditions to all providers of prescription services, or any drug which is overpriced in comparison to another drug having similar therapeutic effect, unless the Health and Welfare Administrator determines that the drug is vital to the program and no acceptable substitute is available."

Hippies Arrive, Beaver Family Moves From Area

The job of protecting wildlife's dwindling habitat in Southern California took on an added twist this week for the Department of Fish and Game. Witness this chronological field report from a DFG wildlife manager in Orange County: "Southern California-type hippies discovered an attractive beaver pond in San Juan Canyon for swimming, bathing and what have you. Two results: (1) Beaver family evacuated the pond, moving upstream to escape disturbance and/or hippie-type pollution. (2) Many hippies arrested for allegedly being under the influence of drugs. Just another of the many activities of man now affecting wildlife, making the gun less and less important."

Del Mar Derby Saturday Draws Top 3-Year Old

One of the most hotly-contested Del Mar Derby renewals in history on Saturday and a crack field of stakes stars in Friday's Cabrillo Handicap will headline racing action at the seaside course this weekend.

The $25,000 Derby, mile and one eighth championship test for 3-year-olds, will once again bring out Frank McMahon's Baffle, a colt that has shown a distinct affinity for the Del Mar oval. Baffle conquered a full field of sophomores in the La Jolla Mile, scoring his first victory over a distance of ground, two weeks ago. Prior to that he just missed by a head to Broad Shadows in the Oceanside 'Capatsixfur-longa'. Apparently, Trainer Johnny Longden and Jockey Bill Hartack have found the secret on Baffle and his distance running abilities.

Opposing the McMahon ace will be such hard-hitting colts as Traffic Beat and Bargain Day, second and third in the La Jolla; Mr. and Mrs. John Mabe's American Tiger, Howard Kock's Fiddle Late, Albert Sultan's First Mate, El Peo Ranch's Distinctly, El-mendorf Farm's Skookum and others.

Two-Year Olds At Los Alamitos On Labor Day

The fifth week of action is highlighted by the Kindergarten Trials Thursday evening as the best two-year olds currently racing at Los Alamitos attempt to qualify for the 10 positions of the $100,000-added Kindergarten to be run Labor Day, Sept. 2.

Forty-seven youngsters were nominated by the deadline July 20 for $100 and it will cost another $400 to enter the Trials. Each horse in the Trials will be individually clocked, with the 10 fastest qualifying for the rich Kindergarten.

The Kindergarten is the second of three $100,000 races which Los Alamitos is staging in 1968. The first was the $111,300 Los Alamitos Derby won by Truly Night Aug. 10, while the final one will be the $100,000 Los Alamitos Championship to be held closing night Nov. 11.

Scots Invested In Early West

DAVIS—The American West of the 19th century—the era of the cowboy, the miner, and the wagon train—was largely developed through funds invested by Scots.

Though known as canny and shrewd investors, they suffered many a financial loss in their attempts to exploit the mineral, timber, and livestock resources in the western U.S., according to historian W. Turrentine Jackson of the University of California—Davis in his new book, "The Enterprising Scot."

The Scots were looking for expanding markets for investment and for supplies for Scottish manufacturers, and the American West was just opening up. This mutual need greatly sped the development of the West, Jackson says.

Another boon to America was the enacting of limited liability laws in Great Britain that led to release of great sums of money for investment.

Jackson estimates that by 1890, Scottish investors had 40 million pounds sterling in the U.S.

First UC-San Diego Kidney Transplant

SAN DIEGO—Larry Sheets, 32, who received a kidney transplant last month at University Hospital of San Diego County, is convalescing.

Dr. Richard A. Lockwood, Director of Hospitals and Clinics, UCSD School of Medicine, said the patient's transplanted kidney is functioning well and maintaining his blood chemistry in a normal state.

James Sheets, 39, donor of the kidney and brother of the recipient, has returned to his home in Moscow, Idaho.

The June 19 operation was San Diego County's first human kidney transplantation involving a live donor and recipient.

Pat Blundell Displays Art At Inland Bank

CLAREMONT -- Pat Blundell, a homemaker who at 16 decided to give up her first-love--art--to become a practical minded business major, is now showing an impressive collection of her paintings at the Inland Bank in Claremont. The display will continue until the end of September. After a period of some 20 years, Mrs. Blundell was inspired by the Laguna Art Festival to return to painting. How well she has succeeded can be seen from the great variety of paintings she has on display. Portraits, still life, seascapes are all a part of it.

James H. Blundell, Jr., who until last year was a teacher in Pomona and is now in the data processing business, is Pat Blundell's husband. They are the parents of two teenage daughters Leann and Gail. Mrs. Blundell resides at 2056 So. Town, Pomona with her family.

Archery Deer Bear Season Opens, Aug. 24

California's archery bear and late archery deer hunting seasons open Saturday, August 24, the Department of Fish and Game reports.

Both seasons will continue through Sunday, September 15.

Archery deer limits are the same as those for the rifle seasons—one buck forked horn or better in the general season area; two bucks forked horn or better in the northwest area; and one buck three points or better in the northeast area.

The limit on bears is two per season, provided that no person may take more than two bears whether taken by firearms or bow and arrow. Southern California is closed to bear hunting this season. Hunters should check the hunting regulations for the boundaries.

Deer hunters are required to have a valid 1968-69 hunting license ($4) and deer tags ($2); bear hunters need a hunting license and bear tags ($1).

Salt Water Conversion

An additional seventy trillion gallons of fresh water a year will be needed in the U.S. by 1975. Nickel-containing alloys that can stand up to corrosive salt water and to the heat and cold of conversion, are in the forefront of materials for new seawater conversion equipment.

Gun Control Momentum Gradually Dying, DA

Lack of continued public support for firearms controls has been the main factor in the failure of gun legislation on the federal and state levels, Chief Deputy Attorney General Charles A. O'Brien told the Covina Lions Club at the Covina Bowl in Covina recently. In a luncheon address O'Brien stated, "The massive public outpouring in favor of gun control following the assassination of Robert Kennedy has dwindled to almost nothing. The opposition to gun controls has continued to build. Only a substantial long-term public effort in favor of gun controls will see such controls achieved."

O'Brien said that stricter gun controls would be a great aid to law enforcement.

"At present, our computer in Sacramento can identify only forty per cent of the handguns used in crimes," O'Brien said. "Stricter laws would increase this identification and would therefore result in many more crimes being solved."

The Chief Deputy said that law enforcement from the Attorney General down to the local police chiefs and sheriffs favor stronger gun laws.

"Various public opinion polls indicate strong public support for gun laws. The letters to our office do not reflect this feeling. Initially, letters were running heavily in favor of gun control -- at least ten-to-one. That ratio is now exactly reversed.

"It has been suggested that gun law advocates do not have the staying-power of gun law opponents. If the advocates wish to achieve their ends, they must consider their effort in terms of years, rather than days."

Every advance in firearms control in California has resulted from arduous efforts on the part of law enforcement, O'Brien noted. "A few years ago, we couldn't outlaw cannons and bombs in this state. We eventually presented overwhelming proof of the danger presented by the uncontrolled possession of such weapons, and a law was passed. Advocates of even stricter gun laws should consider this experience when they mount their campaigns."

The Chief Deputy also spoke on the need for social change within the framework of law and order.

CHP To Begin Speedy Tele Communications

An automatic telecommunications system rated among the newest and fastest in the world, designed especially for police communication, will be put into operation by the California Highway Patrol next Monday (Aug. 26), CHP Commissioner H.W. Sullivan announced today.

The new system takes CHP teletype communications out of the "party-line" era. Under the 15-year-old system now being replaced, each of the six CHP Zones had a single circuit. All six circuits were connected to Headquarters in Sacramento, where a message from one Zone to another had to be taken off one circuit and relayed on another circuit to its destination.

Under the new system, each of 64 CHP offices, as well as the Department of Motor Vehicles headquarters and the Nevada Highway Patrol, has a direct private line. Any one of these stations can communicate with any other, swiftly and directly, without preventing other stations from communicating at the same time, as the "party-line" system did.

Five automatic switching stations, at Redding, Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno and Los Angeles, plus the private lines, new fast equipment which transmits at 100 words per minute, and touch-tone dialing, make the system unique.

ATTENTION MOTHERS!

There is much to learn from a second child. It is obvious that people are different from one another and even brothers and sisters can be as different as total strangers. What one mother learned from her second child is related in an article by Lynn Minton in the September Family Circle magazine.

In addition to realizing how different two children born of the same parents can be, Mrs. Minton learned some practical facts from her second child.

For example, she learned that it won't hurt if the new baby cries a little. The firstborn was picked up as soon as he became discontented. Now, if the new baby begins to cry and Mother is busy, baby must wait. Not for long, but wait she does.

Another thing Mrs. Minton learned from her second child is that there is more than one way to skin a cat. She found that for every way she had of doing something, a friend or relative could suggest another, and that surprisingly enough most of these ways were right. For instance, if the pediatrician recommended squash for the baby's first vegetable, another vegetable would probably do just as well. And did.

At three months, Mrs. Minton's daughter taught her something about men. With her first child—a son—the father's behavior was an extension of his own ego. He wanted the child to be big and strong and independent—a man. Toward the baby girl, he was totally different. Is the room temperature all right? Do you think she has a tummy ache? In short, he was protective.

Says Mrs. Minton: "She has taught this chief cook and bottle washer that there are rewards, too, for the helpless, dependent, feminine female."

Her second child also has taught Mother to organize time and work. In some ways this gives her more time than she had. "With two kids, you have to be organized."

It is relaxing to realize, the author concludes, that everything does not have to be done right then or just so. There is a margin for error, for mistakes, and the kids will still grow up all right, still be all right.
